Radiac Abrasives applied to the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (Illinois EPA) for a federally enforceable state operating permit (FESOP) regulating air emissions from its facility located at 1015 South College Avenue in Salem. The facility is an abrasive wheel manufacturing facility. Based on its review of the application, the Illinois EPA has made a preliminary determination that the application meets the standards for issuance and has prepared a draft permit for public review.

The Illinois EPA is accepting written public comments on the draft permit. After consideration of any comments received, the Illinois EPA will make a final decision on the permit.

Draft permit documents are also available for inspection at the Illinois EPA's offices at 2309 W. Main St., Suite 116 in Marion, (618) 993-7200 and 2520 W. Iles Ave. in Springfield, (217) 786-0790 (please call ahead to assure that someone will be available to assist you). Copies of the documents will be made available upon request.

The facility is located in an area of Environmental Justice concern. More information concerning Environmental Justice may be found at https://epa.illinois.gov/topics/environmental-justice.html.

The 1990 amendments to the Clean Air Act require potentially major sources of air emissions to obtain federally enforceable operating permits. A FESOP permit allows a source that is potentially major to take operational limits in the permit so that it is a non-major source. The permit will contain federally enforceable limitations that restrict the facility's emissions to non-major levels. The permit will be enforceable by the U.S. EPA, as well as the Illinois EPA.
